Membership information

Thanks for your interest - the garden a wonderful place to connect with other people. We hope it helps you to connect with community, nature, share and grow food grown using organic principles, and develop the skills and knowledge for sustainable living.

How to apply

1. Tour the garden

Take a tour of the garden with the convenor, site manager or a committee member to get a sense of the place and how you can get involved. If you're considering hiring a private plot, you may be able to look at some options.

2. Apply

Read our rules, policies and guidelines and our statement of purpose available on wcg3280.org.au. Our association rules constitute the terms of contract for all memberships and by signing the membership form you agree follow them.

Give us a few words about why you are joining so we can link you to the many activities we offer. If you're a family or an organisation, include a second adult contact.

3. Invoice and induction

We'll send you an invoice with options to pay your membership fees. Your details go on the member register and the member support team will organise an induction.

Members pay an annual fee according to their membership type. They contribute to our garden according to their skills, interests and abilities.
